

25. FORESTRY

We support:

1. Incentives for the development of private forest resources in Illinois.
2. The planting of trees on land that is unable to meet conservation compliance standards to help control soil erosion and increase timber resources.